

Workshop in “Trends in IT and Placements for Non- Engineering Graduates”

A workshop on the topic “Trends in IT and Placements for Non- Engineering Graduates” was organized by Computer Science Department in collaboration with Wipro Technologies on 15th October 2009 as a part of Golden Jubilee Year Activities. The main objective of the workshop was to prepare the placement officers of different colleges to guide their students to become competent and tailor-made for industries .The workshop was a huge success with more than 20 colleges participating.

The function was inaugurated by Principal Dr. Harsha Mehta by lighting the lamp. The Head of the Department Mr. Manoj Singh did the formal Welcome. The following eminent personalities delivered lectures.

i). Mr Satish Ranade: He is a General Manager and veteran with Wipro Technologies .An expert in banking and financial services, he is a well traveled man with a wide horizon. He gave the audience an insight on Trends in IT in general and Banking and Financial sector in particular.

ii) Mr. Prashant Gulvadi: He is a senior Delivery Manager and heads Mission Quality for Pune. An expert in quality processes and systems in the field of IT, he delivered a lecture on “The need for Quality and Assessment in IT sector”.

iii) Maj(Retd). Bharat Kumar Cingireddy: He is an alumnus of the NDA and XLRI. He currently heads the campus recruitments for west region. He delivered a lecture on “Opportunities for Non – Engineering Graduates “.

There were interactive sessions with participants firing queries and the experts providing absolute solutions for tackling the recession in the IT sector. Participants were enlightened with loads of information and expressed their gratitude for organizing such a big event.